Privacy notice for the school and college workforce

Under data protection law, individuals have a right to be informed about how the school and college uses any personal data that we hold about them. We comply with this right by providing 'privacy notices' (sometimes called 'fair processing notices') to individuals where we are processing their personal data.

This privacy notice explains how we collect, store and use personal data about individuals we employ, or otherwise engage, to work at our school.

We, Wargrave House School and College, are the 'data controller' for the purposes of data protection law.

Where you have provided us with consent to use your data, you may withdraw this consent at any time. We will make this clear when requesting your consent, and explain how you go about withdrawing consent if you wish to do so.

Some of the reasons listed above for collecting and using personal information about you overlap, and there may be several grounds which justify the school's use of your data.

Collecting this information

While the majority of information we collect from you is mandatory, there is some information that you can choose whether or not to provide to us.

Whenever we seek to collect information from you, we make it clear whether you must provide this information (and if so, what the possible consequences are of not complying), or whether you have a choice.

How we store this data

Personal data is stored in line with our data control policy.

We create and maintain an employment file for each staff member. The information contained in this file is kept secure and is only used for purposes directly relevant to your employment. Information is also stored in electronic form on our computer network.

Once your employment with us has ended, we will retain this file and delete the information in it in accordance with our retention of data and documentation policy.

Copies of these policies are available on the computer network or from the Finance & HR Office.

Data sharing

We do not share information about you with any third party without your consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.
